

Risk Management Premium Credit Options (on or before 4/30/26)

PLICO believes a strong risk management program improves patient care and protects providers from liability. That's why we offer access to MedPro Group's 120 years of experience and strong risk management education. We offer flexible educational opportunities in a variety of formats including live seminars, online courses, and office staff training. Learn about current and emerging patient safety and risk issues in a meaningful way that meets your needs. Many options offer policyholders the opportunity to earn continuing education (CE) and premium credits.
